

SOLUTIONS

PROBLEM

Strategy, Operations, Management Consulting

We are with you from Assessment to Implementation

NYC Advisors' team of senior executives will serve as your trusted business advisor. We provide complete business, strategic and operational support services through the development and execution of innovative business plans and solutions. Our services include executive management services, financial and operational restructuring, buyouts, pre-sale due-diligence, and M&A.

NYC Advisors' highly qualified team has led highly complex private and public transactions, developed and executed business integration and organizational consolidation projects, running successful restructuring and turnarounds. We serve as your in-house financial, operational, business, and personal advisor, acting as your own board of directors, CFO or COO, and providing you with the necessary tools to ensure successful execution and the desired results.
